U.S. Holding Own In Missile Race

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department's director of guided missiles, William M. Holaday, said yesterday a defense against intercontinental missiles now seems feasible.

Work on such a defense is "being pushed to the extreme limits of technology," Holaday told the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

Holaday told the 400 editors at their annual meeting that the present over-all status of Russian missile development is not a bit better than our own at the present time.

Defense Department news policies and public education were other subjects before the editors.

Murray Snyder, assistant secretary of defense in charge of public information, hit back at charges of censorship and news suppression made Thursday by Rep. Moss (D-Calif.), chairman of a House Information subcommittee.

Snyder defended news arrangements at the Cape Canaveral, Fla., missile test center as an example of "cooperation in good faith between government and the information media."

Wiggins, a veteran ASNE foe of news suppression, said a temporary agreement at Cape Canaveral which followed the widely publicized failure of a Vanguard launching attempt last December amounted to "a code of voluntary wartime censorship entered into in secret."

The Washington editor said this arrangement, which lasted two weeks, violated two principles established under World War II censorship: 1. that any arrangements between government and press should be made known to the people, and 2. that restrictions on reporters should be limited to matters of secrecy and not matters of policy.

"No one should withhold from us the stories of failures and disasters in order to manipulate the morale of the American people," Wiggins said.

Wiggins, a veteran ASNE foe of news suppression, said a temporary agreement at Cape Canaveral which followed the widely publicized failure of a Vanguard launching attempt last December amounted to "a code of voluntary wartime censorship entered into in secret."

Flood Control

'No Comment' On Letter

By Leonard Randolph
STROUDSBURG Borough Manager Harold Snyder took a "no comment" stand on the progress of the Borough's letter of sponsorship for the Brodheads-McMichaels Creek flood control project, yesterday.

Snyder was asked if the letter, ordered by Council at a special meeting Thursday night, had been forwarded to the Department of Forests and Waters.

"That's one question I won't answer," Snyder said.

said "I'm through answering questions."

Snyder was then asked if he could or would say when the letter might be sent if it has not been sent already.

"All I'll say is that the letter will be there by the deadline—I hope," Snyder said.

The deadline for Stroudsburg's reply is May 1. This was set by Dr. Maurice Goddard, forests and waters secretary, in a letter to Snyder.

This is the second deadline the Borough has been given, however. Earlier the Department had asked that Borough agree to become a sponsor no later than April 15.

On April 2, Council approved a motion by one member, William Schroeder, to "send the necessary letter" of sponsorship to the State. The letter, written and mailed out, over Snyder's signature, on April 9, contained an estimate of the borough's costs and a series of "offsets" which the letter said made local participation possible.

The Department was dissatisfied with that letter.

Anderson Firm Against Tax Cut

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Anderson, standing firm against any quick tax cut, said yesterday the federal deficit will be well over three billion dollars when the present fiscal year ends June 30.

This compares with President Eisenhower's estimate of 400 million in January, before the pinch of the recession was felt.

On other sections of the economic front:

1. The House Ways and Means Committee approved a 1½-billion-dollar unemployment relief program to be financed wholly by the federal government. Critics protested that it would be a dole.

2. The President's Council of Economic Advisers reported the gross national product—the value of all goods and services produced in the country—dropped by $8,600,000,000 during the first quarter of 1958, when figured on an annual rate basis.

3. Anderson told the American Society of Newspaper Editors, "We are not headed for a depression, but for new horizons of progress."

4. The New York stock market perked up, apparently encouraged by the government's latest moves to make money easier to borrow.

Deficit Prediction
In his ASNE address, Anderson predicted a deficit approaching four billion dollars next fiscal year even if federal revenues remain at a high level, something he said was not likely to happen.

Eisenhower in January estimated a 500-million-dollar surplus next year.

The Treasury chief reiterated his opposition to an abrupt tax slash. The tax situation is receiving daily consideration from government officials, he said, but added:

"Modification of taxes in an economy as complex as ours... must be based on a very careful review of what in fact can be accomplished... and not on the theory that a single dramatic action will automatically be all that is required to assure business recovery."

Anderson's position on taxes was supported to some extent by a Harvard University economist, Sumner H. Slichter, who presented his views to the Senate Finance Committee.

Slichter said he would not favor a general tax cut but only a temporary reduction in or suspension of the 10 per cent excise levy on automobiles.

A general tax cut along with spending increases already put into effect by Congress and the administration, Slichter said, "could be an over-stimulation of the economy."

The unemployment relief program approved by the House Ways and Means Committee would provide 16 weeks of additional unemployment payments for those who exhaust their benefits under the existing program.

Backed by the Democratic majority of the committee, the bill would also provide for a new program of unemployment relief for about 1,800,000 workers not now covered by the unemployment insurance system.

Judge Denies Freedom Bid
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Glenn Slighter, 47, a convicted Chambersburg, Pa., murderer trying to win freedom after nearly 21 years in jail, yesterday was denied for a second time a writ of habeas corpus.

Judge John W. Lord, Jr., of U. S. District Court denied the writ, saying he did it with great reluctance because "it would be difficult to conceive of anyone more worthy of his freedom than this man."

Shapiro Resignation
HARRISBURG (AP)—Welfare Secretary Harry Shapiro was reported yesterday to have submitted his resignation to Gov. Leader.

May 9 Deadline
THE STATE Department of Highways has announced bids are being accepted for construction of a portion of the Stroudsburg-East Stroudsburg Thruway and its bridges.

Approximately 3.1 miles of divided highway consisting of reinforced concrete pavement 24 feet in width on each side of a concrete or earth divide.

or including the construction of two alternate superstructure bridges, two I-beam bridges; one box culvert and the extension of an existing arch.

The construction of approximately 9,621 linear feet of crushed aggregate base with bituminous surface 22 feet in width, the construction of two plate girder bridges;

One I-beam bridge and one alternate superstructure bridge having a total overall length of 1,117 feet also the construction of ramps, service roads, intersecting and marginal roads consisting of rigid or flexible type pavements of various widths.

Bids are acceptable until 11 a.m., May 9.

U.N. To Air Red Complaint

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. Security Council has been summoned to meet at 3 p.m. Monday for consideration of a Soviet complaint that U. S. planes with H-Bombs fly over the Soviet Union's borders.

The complaint, filed earlier yesterday, asked that the Council study "urgent measures" to prevent such flights.

Soviet delegate Arkady A. Sobolev reiterated the charges originally made by Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko in Moscow. Sobolev addressed a written demand for the meeting to U. S. delegate Henry Cabot Lodge, president of the 11-nation Council for April.

Lodge called the meeting after the U. N. Secretariat had consulted all Council delegations as to when they wanted to meet.

Sobolev handed the letter to Lodge's deputy, James J. Wadsworth. The U. S. delegation said Wadsworth categorically rejected Sobolev's allegations but the United States will be willing to debate them.

Gubernatorial Candidates Present Views On Taxes To Republican Voters Of State

By The Associated Press
REPUBLICAN voters in Pennsylvania were given a look at their gubernatorial candidates views on taxes yesterday.

Arthur T. McGonigle, the organization choice, said he would never promise to reduce taxes because "I would rather lose the election than make promises I couldn't keep as governor."

Harold E. Stassen, independent Republican candidate, pledged to cut the state's 6 per cent corporate net income tax to the level of that in Ohio and California.

"Present taxes are much too heavy on manufacturing and industry," he said.

William S. Livengood, another Republican independent, said that if elected he would seek "a just and equitable tax program that will allow industry to prosper, labor to receive a just wage and provide a profitable market for the farmer."

Domination
The Republican candidates had the primary campaign just about to themselves yesterday.

Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman, independent Democratic candidate for governor, stumped through Allegheny County, organization candidate David L. Lawrence's backyard. Lawrence, mayor of Pittsburgh, threw out the first baseball at the opening home game of the Pirates.

There were no campaign statements from the Furman camp yesterday.

McGonigle, touring the midstate area, once again struck out at the state Highways Department operation under the Leader administration.

He said in a radio address from Lewisport that highways planning "collapsed" under the present administration. As a result, he said, the state last year lost 160 million dollars in federal highway construction funds. He also accused the administration of doing "little or nothing" about flood control projects over the past three years.

Stassen held a news conference in Harrisburg where he formally opened his state campaign headquarters. He said a reduction of taxes on industry would boost Pennsylvania payrolls which in turn would balance out the reduction in state revenue from the CNI tax loss. He also said the budget could be balanced by introducing economies into the administration. The present CNI tax produces about 314 million dollars in Pennsylvania. Ohio has no corporate net income tax; California's is 4 per cent.

Livengood, addressing a Young Republicans rally in Pittsburgh, once again advocated passage of the so-called "right-to-work" legislation for Pennsylvania. He said it would help solve the state's unemployment problem. Such a law, he continued, would assure the "inalienable right of every man and woman to obtain employment without hindrance of any kind."

Firm Files Suit
SCRANTON (AP)—Desire Fashion, Inc., a New York dress firm, filed suit for more than one million dollars yesterday in federal court against the International Ladies Garment Workers Union, three of its ranking officers and two locals.

The contract, running for three years to Feb. 1, 1961, provides a 6.4 per cent raise now, and another 2.4 per cent hike next year, the union said. The prior rate for three-year technicians was $175.

The union also said that controversies over job jurisdiction and security and other fringe issues were compromised amicably.

The 1,300 striking cameramen and other technicians had been idle in New York, Hollywood, St. Louis, San Francisco, Milwaukee, Chicago, Boston and Hartford, Conn.

American Fashion Show Draws Crowds

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—The United States' slick, subtle, and slightly sexy show by last night was the biggest attraction at the 1958 World's Fair.

The crowd became so excited at one point during the girly-girly fashion parade that a Belgian guard crashed through a plate glass window. He was hurried to a hospital.

The American exhibit was definitely outpacing the Russian. Fair officials said 169,000 had bought tickets for Thursday's inaugural opening. Of these, nearly 60,000 visited the colorful American pavilion, by American count.

Doing business across the street, the Russians declined to give attendance figures. Unofficial checks showed consistently larger crowds at the U.S. extravaganza.

Possibility
But the fair has six months to run, and the crowds could turn in the other direction.

The American and Russian shows—sitting side by side—are frankly bidding for patronage. Admission is free at both pavilions. Visitors pay the Belgium equivalent of 60 cents to get into the fair.

The Russians and Americans sought to point up the advantages and accomplishments of their respective ways of life. Many individuals recorded their impressions in a trio of guest books at the Russian show.

Some of them:

"I'm not with you, but I admire you."

"Progress, not the country, is what counts."

"Your work is great for four years of isolation."

There were some which needed censorship.

Two Banks To Merge

POTTSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—The president of Miners National Bank announced an agreement yesterday under which Miners will acquire Williamstown Bank in Dauphin County.

J. Robert Bazley said the directors of the two banks signed the agreement which must be ratified by the stockholders of both banks and approved by state and federal agencies.

Indonesian Forces Drive Toward Rebel Stronghold

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Government forces drove yesterday toward Bukittinggi, capital and last stronghold of the tottering rebel regime on Sumatra, a military spokesman said.

"It will be all over soon," he predicted.

He refused to say how far the troops had advanced on Bukittinggi. The town lies 58 miles by twisting mountain road and 40 miles by air north of Padang, the rebel port the government said its forces seized Thursday.

Rebel Premier Sjafruddin Prawiranegara and his government of young Indonesian colonels apparently must soon make the hard decision of whether to stand and fight or flee to the jungles.

Along Roads
Other government columns operating for weeks in eastern and northern Sumatra are moving on the rebel capital along all the other roads from north, east and south.

(Rebel reports reaching Singapore asserted there still was some street fighting in Padang up to noon yesterday and that rebel forces still held positions five miles south of the port.

(But a delayed dispatch from Associated Press Correspondent Murray Fromson at Bukittinggi said a Sumatran military spokesman there had announced the loss of Padang. The spokesman said it was occupied at 6:30 p.m. Thursday by two Jakarta battalions.)

Marines, soldiers, paratroopers, and commandos thus succeeded in all but stamping out the embers of a revolution of army colonels that flared brightly in February only to flicker in April. The rebels had demanded changes in the government set up in Jakarta to eliminate Communists and had demanded a greater share of the intake from exports by the nation's outer islands.

Burglar Robs Townsend
PARIS (AP)—A burglar broke into Group Capt. Peter Townsend's car yesterday morning and stole two suitcases and 400,000 francs—$62.

Passing through Paris, Princess Margaret's former suitor had parked his car on a Left Bank street. Finding a door forced open later, he filed a complaint at the local police station.

Burro Finds Good Grazing
TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (AP)—Alejandro Salgado, a wealthy farmer who kept his money in a trunk, spread the bills on a patio floor from time to time to keep them from getting musty. The last time a grazing burro found it.

Some $10,000 had disappeared down the animal's throat when Salgado noticed it. Enraged, he killed the burro, then fell stricken with a heart attack.

Four Injured In Accident

BOUND BROOK, N. J. (AP)—Four men were injured early yesterday, one of them critically, when a passenger auto smashed into the rear of a tractor trailer on Route 22.

Critically injured was the driver of the passenger car, Frederick Rielly of Passaic.

Court Clears Path For Ezra Pound

WASHINGTON (AP)—Poet Ezra Pound soon will leave the mental hospital which has been his prison for 12 years.

A treason indictment accusing Pound, 72, of betraying this country with pro-Axis, anti-American radio broadcasts from Italy during World War II was dismissed yesterday in U. S. District Court.

With the indictment out of the way, only a few details remain before Pound can leave St. Elizabeth's Hospital, where he has been confined since he was adjudged mentally incompetent in 1946.

For one thing, his wife, Dorothy Shakespeare Pound, must file a plan for his care. The Pounds hope to get passports to return to Italy where they lived for 21 years before he was arrested by American troops in 1945.

Mrs. Pound told friends her husband probably will remain at St. Elizabeth's a few more days.

"I've got to have time to turn around," she commented.

No Danger
Chief Judge Bolitha J. Laws dismissed the indictment on the ground that Pound is not and never will be mentally competent to stand trial. At the same time it was held that he would not be dangerous to himself or others if set free.

The court proceeding lasted only about 10 minutes.

The bearded Pound was brought to the hearing by a hospital attendant. He sat among the spectators and listened with bowed head. Before the hearing started he chatted animatedly with friends and admirers who stopped by to greet him.

Asked if he wanted to return to Italy he replied with a vigorous: "Yes."

Atty. Thurman Arnold, representing the Pounds, told Judge Laws that the hospital superintendent, Dr. Winfred Overholser, had filed a sworn statement saying the poet now is mentally incompetent and that there is no likelihood he ever will be able to stand trial.

Promise Of Investigation
WASHINGTON (AP)—The number two man in the Teamsters Union promised the Senate Rackets Committee yesterday to investigate Teamsters Local 107 in Philadelphia from top to bottom.

"I'll take care of Local 107," John F. English, international secretary-treasurer, told the senators.

The Rackets Committee is looking into alleged financial scandals and strong-arm methods in the local. But it has been hampered by the refusal of 20 or more witnesses to testify.

RUSSIA CAN'T GARBLE THIS MESSAGE

Behind the iron curtain is a powerful transmitter which tries to garble the messages which come from the free world.

We like to think that no one can garble the prayer of a little child to his God. But sometimes, right here in a free Christian land, we jam the wave-lengths of faith with examples of doubt and indifference. Even parents occasionally stifle the spiritual yearnings of their own children!

One of our freedoms is FREEDOM OF WORSHIP. In the sight of God, and before the eyes of a growing generation of free Americans, what shall we do with this freedom?

There has never been a day when Christian sincerity in the community, Christian example in the family, and Christian devotion in the individual were more essential for the preservation of our spiritual heritage to another generation!

Come to Church—join the Church—support the Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Road-e-o Officials Speak To East Borough Students

EAST Stroudsburg High School students yesterday addressed on the forthcoming safe driving teenage road-e-o by a member of the sponsoring organization.

Pointed out in the address was the need for more competitive spirit between the students of Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg High in relation to the local road-e-o to be held April 26.

Speaker was Stanley Grace, chairman of the local road-e-o committee of the Pocono Mountains Jaycees.

Committee members report that a similar address given by Grace to Stroudsburg High School students earlier this week has resulted in some 24 applications submitted.

Inquiry into procedure for obtaining applications and information on the road-e-o has also been received from officials of Barrett Township School. Jaycees expressed expectations of the largest participation since the advent of the local road-e-o four years ago.

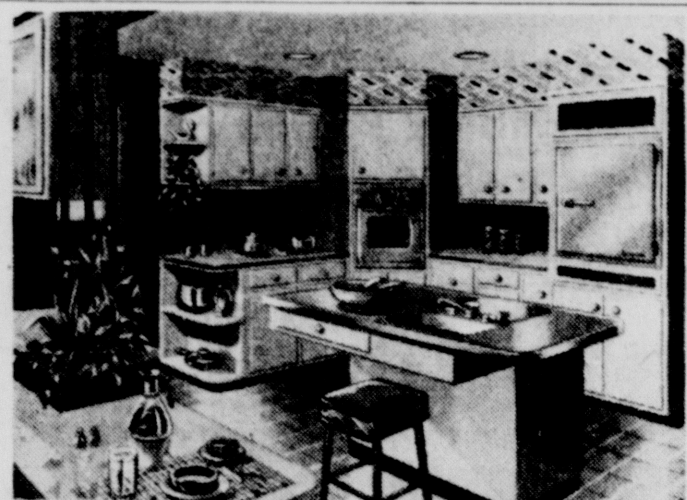

Current holders of the traveling trophy awarded to the school attended by the winner is the Stroudsburg High School. Jaycees note it has been won by a student of that school each year thus far.

Hudak had resided at the Mount Pocono address — the home of John Jaskolka — for the last seven years.

Funeral arrangements will be announced by the William H. Clark Funeral Home, Stroudsburg.

Daily Record Survey

Teachers Oppose 'Go Easy' Policy

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is one of a series of articles on Monroe County education. Each will be based on the results of the county-wide survey conducted by the author for The Daily Record.)

By Leonard Randolph

WHEN THEY touch upon the subject of qualifications needed for their profession, some local teachers believe strong that a good many of those who may become teachers during the next few months should have been directed into other fields.

This "weeding out" of the "unqualified" is no easy process. And, at present, it is nearly impossible because:

1—There seems to be little or no accurate (or even adequate) method of determining a prospective teacher's qualifications until he has had a chance to work in an actual classroom environment over an extended period.

2—There is still a critical shortage of teachers in many local areas and on a statewide basis. The tendency, therefore, is to "go easy" on students who may not seem to have exactly the right qualities for teaching and graduate them anyway.

3—The teaching profession, unlike others to which teachers would like to be compared, has no set system of standards and no governing organization which passes on qualifications.

4—Whatever screening is done is left to the school administrator or the school board. (Many times, the board, made up of non-professionals, simply accepts the administrator's judgment and lets it go at that. Some local teachers, on the other hand, believe that superintendents are too often inclined to "play by ear" or judge purely on personality.)

Many local teachers feel that potential teachers should be more carefully "screened" at college level and before they are hired to go into the field by unsuspecting districts. They do not offer any suggestions of how this should be done.

A few, however, are inclined to the view that appropriate testing programs and psychological exploration will show whether the students will be suited to teaching.

Among comments on the qualifications of those coming into teaching are the following:

—Undergraduates in education should be carefully screened. Only those who have something to offer should be allowed to train as teachers. Too often people take teacher training because there is a teacher-training institution in their area and because of lack of funds to attend a liberal arts school.

—We should weed out students, in teachers colleges, who are unsuited for teaching and have more room for those who will actually become good teachers. Monroe County teachers who are now doing an active life-work in classrooms are generally ready to acknowledge the shortcomings of their own training. They have had actual experiences to help them realize some of the flaws they feel exist in the preparation of young people for the profession.

Most of those flaws, where they exist, they feel could be remedied through better instruction in the colleges and a change in the overall system of teacher training.

This would, at least, give young people a better chance to uncover their own capabilities.

Until those new methods are perfected, however, local teachers feel we need better methods for determining whether a prospective teacher is really going to be able to teach.

Two East Stroudsburg Banks Win Increase In Ranking

OFFICIALS of the Monroe County National Bank of Stroudsburg were recently informed by a New York banking trade publication that the institution's rank among the 14,000 banks in the United States jumped 98 places since a year ago.

The exact rank of the local bank was not disclosed in a telegram received by the officials from the American Banker of New York. Verner Reynolds, cashier and trust officer of the bank, said its rank is believed to be in the 4,200 group.

The spectacular gain, compiled from deposit figures, is a record high for the local institution, officials said.

Officers of the East Stroudsburg National Bank said a similar correspondence was received which showed an improvement in their position. Details of the hike in rank was not immediately available.

Back Tax Over Million

HARRISBURG — The state Revenue Department said yesterday it has found Pennsylvania firms owing a total of more than a million dollars in sales tax.

Vincent G. Panati, revenue secretary, said the deficiencies unless a new French government immediately compromises.

Bourguiba's statement virtually assured a Security Council discussion of the dispute.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

In all our rejoicing over the summer weather, I'd completely forgotten that it is also accompanied by summer traffic. Until I got caught in it last night. Seems as if everybody was heading for Monroe County, and I don't blame them but it does take a certain amount of adjustment of your mental time clock trying to get somewhere.

But almost as bad as the car traffic is the traffic jam in the social calendar. This month the fourth Tuesday comes right after the third Monday.

Well, all we have to worry about right now is the third Saturday and hope that the weather holds until gardeners, fishermen, visiting bandmen, all the children who've spent this last week gazing wistfully at the sunshine from school windows, all the wives who've saved up chores for their husbands to do outside on their day off, all the golfers, gold-brickers and me get our fill of it.

Speaking of fishermen, it's good that Rod MacLeod got one day of fishing in before his operation, but after seeing him yesterday, visiting around the hospital in fine fettle, I've stopped feeling sorry for him. Save your sympathy for us poor slaves, who face another week just as busy as last week's. Spring fever can be quite as debilitating as winter doldrums.

200 Signs Found Within Monroe County Right-Of-Way Limits

Billboards Found Along Main Routes

By Don Carlson

MORE THAN 200 billboards and signs have been found located within the right-of-way limits along two federal highway routes in Monroe County, it was disclosed last night.

Joseph Ciampi, maintenance superintendent for Monroe County highways, said the signs have been found along Routes 611 and 209 during checking recommended by State Highway Department officials last Tuesday.

Some 10 persons have been notified by telephone regarding the illegal positions of their respective signs, Ciampi said, and all indicated co-operation in having them moved or removed.

Notification

An additional 200 persons or firms will be notified by letter of the required change in location or positioning, Ciampi said. The right-of-way limits along some of the highways vary, he noted, and in many instances it apparently was not known on the part of the advertisers that the signs were inside the pre-established lines.

The 200 found to be within these limits thus far, he continued, resulted during a two-day survey. Other highways are yet to be checked and the figure is expected to increase.

The recommendation of a campaign to clean up the right-of-way was issued by T. K. Rothermund, district engineer for the State Highway Department, and Sidney Blum, traffic engineer.

The officials advised that it be a procedure prosecuted firmly. Trashy and ill-kept signs, they suggested, be removed immediately if found within the right-of-way limits.

In the case of an attractive and well-maintained sign, the owner is to be asked to co-operate and remove it through his own channels.

Legal Notice

In the event the notification is not complied with, officials said, legal notice will be served for the signs removal. Should this be ignored, they said, then the sign or portion of it within the limit will be removed by the Highway Department.

Any sign removed by the department will be stored at the highway shed where the owner may reclaim it.

The sign campaign, it was reported earlier, is state-wide in nature and was undertaken by Highways Secretary Lewis Stevens after consultation with safety experts.

The department, it was explained, feels that signs within the right-of-way of any state highway — primary or secondary — is a definite safety hazard because it distracts drivers' attention from the road.

Busy Week On School Calendar

NEWFOUNDLAND — The school calendar is a busy one for the next week, according to Leland Cramer, supervising principal, who lists these activities:

Tuesday an all-day rehearsal of the Wayne County Chorus will be held at Honesdale in preparation for the May 6 concert at Waymart. GDS is participating in the event.

Tuesday and Wednesday Edgar Jenkins, Lake Ariel principal, and Leland Cramer, GDS supervising principal, will attend a conference of school administrators at Hershey.

Thursday

Barrett Township Brownie Troop In Midst Of Conservation, Study Of Area Nature

CANADENSIS — Brownies of Troop 53 of Barrett, in line with conservation, have been busy this past month studying about nature. They talked about the kinds of food that should be put out for the deer and birds.

They also learned about clouds and what makes it rain. They learned of how important good soil, water and sunlight are for growing trees, from which we get many things which are necessary for everyday living.

Now that the weather is getting warmer they are planning on getting out into the woods to see what they can find to make a terrarium.

Mrs. Michael Bridge is leader of Troop 53 and Mrs. Ann Bridge co-leader.

Girls in the troop are:

Geneva Anderson, Leslie Biles, Nancy Caulfield, Kathleen Caproli, Maureen Conley, Lauren DeLuca, Marlene Doll, Rosemary Garris, Elaine Kless, Linda Komenka, Laurie Larsen, Lou Ann Little, Sharon Sedar, Janice Sengle, Linda Smith, Sandra Taylor, Charlotte Villa, Charlotte Weidaw and Maria Zehender.

Brownie Troop Four, which was organized in November, 1957, has 24 members. The leaders are Mrs. William Krummell, Mrs. James Manhart and Mrs. A. A. McCambridge. Members of this troop are: Maureen Olker, Holly Ann Thomas, Janice Williams, Diane McCambridge, Wendy Fulmer, Mari Lou Kropp, Elizabeth Case, Lore Ann Krummell, Elizabeth Sarfass, Barbara Brown, Kathleen Grogan, Alexis Manhart, Gloria Thomas, Diane Blitz, Linda Erwin, Alexis Melnikoff, Judy Ann Everett, Mary Muraro, Karen Texter, Nancy Bree, Alma Bush, Yvette Lanior, Mary Beth Ryan and Linda Storm.

The girls in Troop Four have had several programs on conservation this month. They have made "litter bags", which are to be used in cars. Another project as shown in picture, is a screen with yarn, feathers, string, etc. which birds will use in making their nests.

The Brownies will participate in the Conservation program to be held on Monday night, at Barrett School. This program will be sponsored by the Barrett Community Club.

LOST SOMEWHAT in the shuffle on the sports scene is a high school rifle team. Such is the case of Stroudsburg High's marksmen who perform diligently the year around without any fanfare whatsoever.

Unlike other sports on the schoolboy level, a rifle team exists only because the team members make it so.

In football, basketball and baseball great steps are taken by the school to give the participant only the best in equipment.

This is not so for the Mountaineer "deadeyes" who have to buy their own guns, shooting jackets, etc.

A coach in this sport is a volunteer. H. W. Woodley performs in this category at Stroudsburg High.

But the net result has been heartening. The Mountaineer rifle team were the best "shots" in an area which comprises one quarter of the state.

While the number of schools participating in a rifle program are much smaller than those vying in other activities, the ultimate goal is the same—winning. Stroudsburg's "Davey Crockett" are tops in a large area whether you count them by twos or tens.

Woodley's proteges did alright by themselves at the recent Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association's rifle championships at Penn State University last week. The Mountaineers took home no less than 10 bronze medals for placing fourth.

Near perfect marksmanship by Lew Davis (199-200); Dave Carey (197-200); Mike Forney (196-200); Gary Kresge (190-200); and Ed Kaiser (187-200) kept the Mountaineers in the running from start to finish as they wound up with a 969 out of a 1,000 count.

For a contingent of boys to reap some harvest practically on their own is an accomplishment in itself. Maybe it would be better if boys in other fields of athletics were forced to put their own frosting on the cake. The results probably would be more gratifying.

Nobody has asked us but we don't particularly like the new type boxscore setup for major league baseball games.

To us a boxscore can and does tell the whole story of a game. The new one isn't that complete.

For instance you can't find out if a player (shortstop) handled nine chances flawlessly. This is a little bit of info many of the fans like.

We wouldn't be surprised that the wire services "baby" passes the way of many new products—in the ash can.

The bowling banquet season is on. Three leagues already have set dates for feasts, citing the champion teams and individuals.

They are Barrett Women's, May 1 at Clyde's Tavern, Cresco; Monroe County Industrial, April 26, Varkony's, at Saylorsburg; and Breakfast Club, Daviduk's at Marshalls Creek.

Want to play golf? Well there are plenty of public links spots available for the duffer and expert alike.

To name a few:

Mountain Manor, Marshalls Creek; Blue Mountain Golf Course, near Sciota; Megareg's courses in every nook and corner of the county; Indian Mountain, Kresgeville; Water Gap CC, Delaware Water Gap; Tamiment, near Bushkill; and Glen Brook CC, Stroudsburg.

6-Run Sixth Jets Cubs To 11-6 Win Over Cards

CHICAGO (AP)—A wild six-run fourth propelled the Chicago Cubs to their third consecutive victory over the St. Louis Cardinals 11-6 before a home opener crowd of 21,076 Friday.

Three wild pitchers and Walt Moryn's two-run homer figured in the five-hit Cub fourth which chased starter and loser, Sad Sam Jones, first of six Card pitchers.

Another five-hit attack in the fifth produced three more Cubs runs to set up the game for starter Dick Drott, who yielded to Fernando Rodriguez in the eighth.

Del Emme's three-run double in the seventh after pinch hitter Dick Schofield's solo homer in the fifth led to Drott's exit.

Virtually at the outset, two Cardinals—Manager Fred Hutchinson and pitcher Herman Wehmeier—were ejected by plate umpire Shag Crawford for heckling him from the bench.

Both starting pitchers were in trouble at the beginning. Don Blasingame's bunt single, an infield out and Stan Musial's single gave St. Louis a first-inning run. Jones' wildness gave the Cubs a pair in the bottom of the first.

Two walks and a hit batsman filled the bases, and Dale Long slammed a two-run single. Jones' successor, Bob Mabe, was victim of four unearned runs before the fourth ended. Two wild pitches, an error, Ernie Banks' single and Moryn's two-run homer did the damage.

Port Jervis Downs Eastburg, 8-5

Ports Early Lead Holds; Ray Homers

PORT Jervis High bolted to an 8-0 lead and then held off a late-inning rally by East Stroudsburg to top the Cavaliers, 8-5, at East Stroudsburg's playground field yesterday.

Hopping on the left-handed slants of Charley Lupin for nine hits in four frames, the Ports built up their commanding lead. Foster Laddie, a sophomore right-hander, came on for the Cavaliers in the fifth and pitched hitless and runless ball the rest of the way.

Eastburg staged a five-run outburst in the fourth inning, highlighted by a two-run homer to right center by Roger Ray.

Stroke Singles
Singles by Bob Stine, Johnny Hindman and Tom Long and a walk to Evan (Doc) Reese got in the other three tallies.

Hindman and Ray led the Cavaliers attack—nine equaling Port's output—with two hits each. Bell, Doss and Corcoran stroked two hits each for Port Jervis.

It was Port's second straight win, while the loss was Eastburg's third in three tries.

Pinson Belts Grand Slam, Redlegs Win

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Rookie Vada Pinson's grand slam home run—his first homer in the majors—earned the Cincinnati Redlegs a 4-1 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates Friday in the season's opener at Forbes Field.

Bob Purkey, a right-hander who was with the Pirates a year ago, won the nod over his former teammates but needed help in the ninth after loading the bases. Hall Groat snuffed out the Pirates' rally, getting pinch hitter Gene Freese to hit into a double play.

The Redlegs got only four hits off four Pirate hurlers. The home run also was the first for the powerhouse Cincinnati team this year.

Off Kline

Pinson, who smashed 20 homers in the minors last year, unloaded in the third inning on starter Ronnie Kline after a walk, a double error and another walk. It was a tremendous blast into deep right center.

A crowd of 34,032—largest opening day attendance since 1948—saw the Pirates score their run in the sixth inning on an infield hit by Dick Groat and singles by Ted Kluszewski and Frank Thomas.

Kluszewski and Thomas each got two hits for the Pirates.

Errors

Two walks and two errors set up the Redlegs' scoring. After Ed Bailey flied out, Roy McMillan walked. Purkey tapped in front of the mound, but Thomas threw wild to second. McMillan raced to third. Billy Virdon, recovering Thomas' heave, threw wild to third. Purkey reaching second. McMillan digging for the plate fell over Kline, but got back to third in time. Pinson followed with his shot into right center.

Record 78,672 Eye Dodgers Edge Giants, 6-5, At LA

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A roaring crowd of 78,672 in a gay, picnic mood greeted the Los Angeles Dodgers in their new home Friday and broke the attendance record for any single regular season game ever played in the majors.

Chisox Rip A's, 11-7

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Big Jim Wilson left Kansas City hitters with little more than a dull ache Friday and Chicago's supposedly powerless hitters unloaded four home runs as the White Sox defeated the Athletics 11-7 and spoiled the home club's opening for 23,001 fans.

The record for a single regular season game was 78,382, set by the Chicago White Sox at Cleveland Aug. 20, 1948 in a night game. The National League high was 60,747 for a Giant-Dodger game in the Polo Grounds in 1937.

The boys took dead aim at that inviting short left field fence in batting practice, thumping 32 balls into the seats despite a 42-foot high protecting screen. It proved more difficult when the game started.

Hank Sauer slammed two home runs, the second a high fly ball that barely cleared the screen in the eighth inning. Hank's first homer was a 340-foot pop to left center just beyond the right end of the high screen in the fourth.

Dick Gray, the Dodgers' rookie third baseman, also found the left field range in the seventh, again just beyond the far edge of the screen.

Davenport gave the new screen the roughest treatment. In the first he singled off the barrier. In the third he again singled the ball hitting about two-thirds of the way up the screen. In the ninth, the rookie third baseman led off with a line double off the screen, which is suspended from two steel towers ala the Brooklyn Bridge.

Wilson, the big man with a storehouse of soft, tantalizing retirements, retired after seven innings. Although they had him on the ropes in the second after Vic Power led off with a home run, the A's couldn't score again until the seventh. A single by pinch hitter Bob Martyn, a double by Mike Baxes and sacrifice flies by Bill Tuttle and Heck Lopez scored two runs.

Gives Up Three
Jim McDonald, who succeeded Wilson, gave up a pair of runs on Hal Smith's homer with the singling Woody Held on base in the eighth.

The A's made a belated try in the ninth as rain, too, dampened the festivities for 20 minutes. Baxes led off with a single to center and went to second when Landis bobbled the ball. Then came the rain.

When play was resumed, Tuttle singled Baxes home and Manager Al Lopez brought in Gerry Staley. He gave up another run as Bob Cerv singled with two out. But the Sox home run barrage against starter Alex Kellner in the early innings was too much for the A's to overcome. Woody Held's grounder to Aparicio ended the rally.

STC Seeks 3rd Win At Trenton

TWICE-VICTORIOUS East Stroudsburg Teachers goes after their third straight victory of the young season today when George Ockershausen's diamond proteges take on Trenton STC on the Garden Staters field.

The Warriors, fresh from their opening triumph over Millersville in Pennsylvania Teachers Conference competition, will probably send "Butch" Hartman, a southpaw, to the hill against Trenton.

If a change takes place, Ockershausen may draw on either John Brunner, "Chick" Daniels or Jim Oplinger. Oplinger was credited with the Warriors two wins, while Daniels has been effective in relief in the two ESSTC triumphs.

Defensive Alignment

The rest of the "Hill" lineup will have Dale Johnson, catcher; Dick Zimmer, first base; "Zeke" Zielinski, second; Bob Charles, the Warriors leading run-producer, thus far, at shortstop; and "Butch" Laurensen, third.

In the outfield will be Al (Bosh) Miller, in left; Jerry Keyser, center; and either Oplinger or Joe Bean in right.

Game time is 2 p.m.

Bowling Clinic

By BILLY SIXTY
Relaxation Is All-Important

WHEN taking your stance drop the head and shoulders, forward a bit to get that loose, free, over-all feeling (see sketch).

Remember, always hold the ball in the palm of your left hand and you'll avoid all pressure in the right hand.

Going into stride should be like taking a leisurely walk. Take it easy. The first step (right foot) must be short. A long, fast firststep is sure to bring you to the foul-line off-balance, with the ball still too far back in the swing to be released smoothly or accurately. Chances are it'll be dropped too soon.

Depends On Position

Where you hold the ball — chest-high, waist-high, or below the waist — depends on which position best lends itself to pushing it away into swing. The higher the ball is held, the wider the swinging arc and the greater the natural speed. The important thing is that you begin with a walk. The swinging ball will naturally increase the tempo of the footwork.

Bowlerettes To Hold Banquet

AAA Calls For State Legislation

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The American Automobile Assn. yesterday called on all its affiliated clubs to begin making plans immediately for legislative activities in the states to implement the billboard legislation passed by Congress and signed by President Eisenhower.

A bulletin addressed to AAA clubs throughout the nation stressed that with enactment of billboard control legislation, the responsibility for action now shifts to the states in order for them to qualify for the roadside protection "bonus."

Protection
"The Federal bill was most carefully drafted so as to protect states' rights," the AAA pointed out. "This means that practically all of the states must take affirmative action in order to make it possible for state officials to enter into the agreements with the Secretary of Commerce which are contemplated in the Federal legislation."

"Although it will be many months before legislatures meet in regular session in most states, it is none too soon to begin making plans and developing support for action by state legislatures which protect major roadsides against blight and will make the state eligible for the substantial bonus made possible by this bill."

Meantime, Harry I. Kirk of Chicago, president of the AAA, issued a statement warmly praising the members of Congress who voted the billboard provisions into law and the many organizations which have been working to secure adequate roadside protection. "Adoption of this Federal law," he said, "should go a long way toward preventing our great interstate routes from becoming sealed off from the American scene by a facade of signs."
